Philantha Kon, M.D., Ph.D., Child, Adolescent & Adult Psychiatrist presents:

Adolescent Depression: Partnering with the Media in Getting the Message Out

Dr. Kon is a child, adolescent, and adult psychiatrist in private practice in West L.A. Prior to becoming a psychiatrist, Dr. Kon pursued at USC film school an interest in youth culture and the effects of the media on the health behaviors of young people. This month's presentation will provide an overview of teen depression and explore the role of the media in public knowledge of and attitudes toward teen depression. Additionally, Dr. Kon will discuss ways to improve communication between mental health providers, the media, and the public.

ALL ARE WELCOME, FREE OF CHARGE!

Please bring brochures & business cards to share with others.
